

Why We Give...

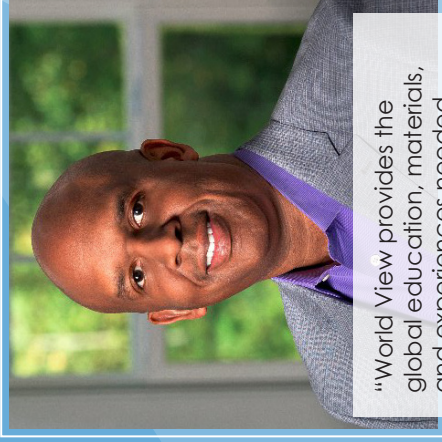

"I give to World View because my hope is for other educators to benefit, as I and my students have, from World View's eye-opening seminars, stereotype-defying resources, and connection to endless global possibilities."

Lee Ann Smith, NBCT, MA.Ed.
Librarian/Media Specialist at Glen Arden Elementary

"Joanne and I have been fortunate to have traveled widely, both when we were in the U.S. Foreign Service and since retirement. Our experiences convince us of the need to prepare the next generation of American leaders to deal with the challenges of the future. World View plays an essential role in preparing our state and country to meet those challenges."

Ambassador (ret.) Michael & Mrs. Joanne Coffey

"World View provides the global education, materials, and experiences needed to help North Carolina's educators prepare our youth to be the global workforce of tomorrow."

Timothy Humphrey
VP, IBM Chief Data Office

Supporting Global Education Together

UNC World View values every contribution as we serve K-12 and community college educators together by connecting educators to UNC resources and providing outstanding global education professional development. In UNC World View's 21-year history, participants have come from all 100 countries in North Carolina, as well as out of state and abroad.

We are grateful for your support. We also take seriously our responsibility to be good stewards of your generosity. EVERY gift matters! Donors will be recognized at our annual Richardson Lecture.

Let's work together to keep the UNC World View momentum going in global education.

Charlé LaMonica
Director, UNC World View
